ENGLAND.

A states to Sir Francis Drake was lately invested at Plymouth.

There are about 2,700 births and about

1,700 deaths per week in London.

In Great Britain in 1883 cattle to the number of 461,457 were attacked with foot and mouth disease.

The largest school in the world is probably the Jews Free School, in Spitalfields, London. It has a daily attendance of over 2,000 pupils.

The single square mile of the City of London proper keeps pace with the growth of the whole of the country of 120 square miles. It has been about one seventh of the value of the whole, and though the metropolis has grown rapidly of late the latest statistics show that the city still keeps its proportionate value.

Of late years there has been in England a pronounced resistance against any attempt to enclose open spaces, more especially in the case of Hampstead Heath, where the late Lord of the Manor was most desirous of building, and now there is a serious contest between the Society for the Preservation of Open Spaces to acquire as a national park, and the various undertakings of several hundred acres of heath, pasture land and beach woods between Hampstead and Highgate, and propose them forever as open space for the enjoyment of the public.

Near Brighton, the other day, a large quantity of wreckage was washed ashore.

Among other articles were found thirty-three gallon casks of wine and several casks of brandy. A large number of persons assembled, purchasing various articles, and browsing the casks. An extraordinary number of drunkenness followed, and many of the men and boys lying around helplessly intoxicated, many of them inattentive. Twenty persons were found help-for many years been in a very unsatisfactory condition, not to much through want of enterprise or the required capital, but by a combination of circumstances. For years a thriving mining industry was carried on in the vicinity of Wicklow at the copper mines at Rathfriland, Ovens, the property of the Wicklow Copper Mines

Company, which have yielded vast quantities of ore, and afforded employment to a large local mining population, but since the introduction of ore from Spain this industry at Wicklow may be said for the present to be almost extinct. There exists in this mine extensive deposits of iron ore, in the form of yellow ochre, the trade carried in this mine is a supplied chiefly from the mines in England and Wales. Yellow ochre enters largely in the manufacture of paint, and other coloring of paper. From the energetic measures that are now being made to open up these ochre deposits in Wicklow it will be that in the future Irish ochres will take a prominent position in the market.

SCOTLAND.

From 60 to 70 per cent. of the salmon at present spawning in the Tweed are affected with the fungus disease.

There are in all sixty-six deer forests in Scotland; they are comprised in an area a little larger than the county of Ross.

There are said to be 1,070 total abandoners among the Presbyterian ministers of Scotland—namely 470 in the Free Church,

200 in the Established, and 296 in the United.

The death of Rev. William Parlance, of the United Presbyterian Church at Tranent, is announced. He was believed to be the oldest Presbyterian minister in

The School Readers.

By W. Wood, M. P., P.

FRIDAY, FEB. 22.

In speaking of Mr. Carleton's motion concerning the Government for having appointed more than one set of School

Readers.

Mr. Wood said it would be very necessary that the Government should make a statement as to the 40 years' debt and the position of the railway fund.

The House did not fully understand this matter. He proceeded to say that it was a mistake to suppose that the position of the province was unfortunate, that there was a constant state of expenditure over receipts. From 1870 to 1883 the excess of expenditure was $1,215,222. The estimates this year were $2,407,000, and last year $2,507,000 an increase of $87,700, as compared with 1882 the increase was $87,700, and with 1881 $87,700. Every year we were drawing upon the capital account of the province, and direct taxation would ultimately have to be resorted to. That the Government feared this was evident from the way in which they proposed to deal with the lower income. The object of the measure was simply to increase the revenue, and therefore it was an indirect tax. In fact it became a direct tax, when a portion of the money was taken from the municipalities. The question was, where was this taxation to end? On which class was it to fall next? Then the Government would be obliged to make the grants for education in order to save money, and this would be a great injustice to the poor districts.

The speaker orator, the country has to meet the railway debt. The best evidence that this was a debt was provided by the fact that the Government was paying for it and in fact had become a debtor to the people. The speaker orator, the country has

THE DAILY QUESTION.

OTAWA, March 7.

The examination of specialists on this important question, continued yesterday, when Mr. W. H. Lynch, the Canadian authorities on the subject, was called before the special committee on Agriculture. Evidence was taken by the committee, and was given by Professor Arnold, two days, and Mr. Lynch three days. The whole examination has been very exhaustive and the testimony of great value. So well it is appreciated that it has largely increased the interest already existing on the important branch of agriculture, and it is determined to utilize it to the largest extent by publishing it in form of a pamphlet, in pamphlet form.

THE WARDENSHIP.

TUESDAY, MARCH 20.

The Court resumed at 2:30, when Mr. Aylsworth was recalled. He testified that in the last of his recollection, Mr. A. F. Wood, M. P. P., had held the two positions of Warden and Chairman of the Grand Roads Committee. He did not vote for Dr. Faulkner nor did he see any of the 14 who supported Mr. Wood change their vote.

John Calkin, Reeve of the Township of Madoc, sworn, said: I was present when the election for Warden took place. I supported Mr. Wood, and I voted for him. I did not vote for Dr. Faulkner, and I did not see any of the 14 who supported Mr. Wood change their vote.

I know that the Clerk was correct, as that number was not a majority. I looked around behind me to see how Gunter voted, and I counted the hands that were up. The Deputy Reeve of Madoc voted for Wood; I saw none vote for Faulkner who had voted for Wood.

Cross-examined.—I undertake to say that I could not count 15 hands held up for Dr. Faulkner; the best of my knowledge and ability to count there were not 10 hands held up for Dr. Faulkner.

Reinforced.—To the best of my knowledge 14 voted for each candidate; I may have made a mistake, as might Dr. Bell. Matthew Robinson, Reeve of Hungerford, sworn, said: I voted for Wood and not for Dr. Faulkner. I counted the votes 14 for Wood, and I counted the votes for Dr. Faulkner 14; I did not see any one who voted for Wood vote for Faulkner.

To Mr. Dickson.—I will not swear that to the best of my knowledge 15 hands were not held up for Faulkner; Green voted for Dr. Faulkner and I think I voted.

By Mr. Dickson.—I think I counted Mr. Thompson as one who voted for Mr. Wood. Thomas Walker, Reeve of Rawdon, sworn, said: I voted for Mr. Wood and not for Mr. Faulkner. I counted the votes 14 for Wood, and I counted the votes for Dr. Faulkner 14; I did not see any one who voted for Wood vote for Faulkner.

FOR THE LADIES.

MARRIAGE is the natural lot of all terrestrial. Even crabs have to be paired

A Pennsylvania justice has married

2,300 couples, and the comical-looking man declines a reelection to office.

How a woman always does up a new pair of shoes to a friend is a story that no man is a woman enough to understand.

"Are angels ever sleepy?" I ask an exchange. Just watch your dog when you read a scientific paper to her after it is time for you to go to bed and do the dog in the front yard.

The following question is to be wrestled with by a country debating society at its next session: If a Mormon has eight wives and one of them is a widow, how many widows does he become, if any?

No one talking the living skeleton is a failure in a matrimonial sense. How

How long did our skeleton and his wife live in matrimonial bliss with Sarah?

"There is one point for which I especially admire Washington," said a man who had just buried his third husband. "He married a widow, thus bringing all his enemies into the house."

"It is terribly true," remarked the man with the beard, "and I can't think of another day. Whenever I go to the speaking table to ask a question, I invariably answered 'Yes, sir, or No, sir.'

In one of our Indian languages the word "woman" is rendered "Kewas-jaw" with marked and exact emphasis in the last two syllables. Even the ages understand the vile and wicked of the lying slanderer.

A couple of Yankee girls were found by a professor fencing with brass-knives in a gymnasium. He remonstrated the young girls that such an accomplishment would not do them any good, and that it would keep them in, "replied one of the girls.

He was rather bold and ready-looking, his nose resembled a crooked stick, and he was a good deal of a scoundrel. When he was asked to give up his fencing, he said, "I can't give up my fencing,"

Two Don and Dumb legs named, Sours and McKay, each aged 14 years, ran away from the Institution for the dumb and dumb on Tuesday last, and no tidings have been heard of them since by the authorities. It is supposed they are looking for work as farm laborers, as they were desirous of earning some money for themselves. If this should meet the eye of any one knowing their present whereabouts, a kindness would be conferred by notifying the Superintendent of the Institution.

During the past winter, Bro. R. M. Roy, of Belleville Lodge No. 81, L. O. O. F., spent his spare hours, and they were for a time in placing on canvas, in oil portraits of the Past Grand of the lodge, which he is an honored and worthy member. He has just finished five portraits of G. W. H. Northrup, Hugh Walker, C. McDonald, Wm. Way and Richard W. Hanson. Today that the work is that of a genius and that it is first class is only saying what correct, and especially truthful is the portrait of Mr. McDonald for a striking likeness of the lodge, and to be put on canvas. The several portraits are enclosed in heavy gilt frames and look very handsome. They will adorn the walls of the lodge room of "81" and will add very much to the appearance of the lodge room.

Romantic, but True.

"Thirty years ago," said a prominent gentleman to a reporter of the Intelligencer this morning, as the two conversed while standing in front of an old building and the talk turned on old recollections, a singular story occurred here. John Turnbull was then acting as agent for the old Commercial. Then there were no iron safe nor detective agency in existence. Turnbull had a lot of vault in the building on Bridge Street, now owned by Mr. E. E. Thompson. It was necessary that a man should do some work and was called. His task was, as he said, completed, so Turnbull said, but when the latter viewed his vault in the morning the money deposited there was missing. The matter was investigated but no clue to the burglar could be obtained. Months passed away and the mystery remained unsolved, and the mental anguish of Mr. Turnbull became greater and greater.

One night "he dreamt a dream." During his slumbers he fancied that the man who stole the money was the man he had employed to repair the vault, and that the money was in his cellar wall concealed behind a loose board. Mr. Turnbull thought the matter over and sent for the late Patrick Salmon, who was then a constable. After a consultation the constable went to his man's house and found the money in the cellar wall behind a brick. About 300 of the money had been expended.

Anyone who doubts the truth of the above can be satisfied by consulting with Mr. W. H. Patton or Mr. Charles Wilkins.

"CODDLING" COE.

HOW A FRIEND OF MR. MOWAT'S HAS BEEN REWARDED.

It will be remembered that, in the early part of the last session of the Legislature, Mr. Wood moved for a return of the nining lands sold in North Hastings, with particular reference to the same. As is usual with the Ontario Government, when there is anything to conceal, the return was held back until the last moment, as, although the return was ready nearly four weeks ago, it was not brought down until Monday night, when discussion was impossible; and even then a considerable portion of the information called for by the House was not given, although it could readily have been furnished. Incomplete and unsatisfactory as is the return, however, enough information is given to show that a princely reward has been given to their supporter, Mr. William Coe, for his opposing the Minister of Commons in 1882, and that more fortunate than Douglas, his expenditure of "plenty of money" in "elevating the standard of public morality," with the aid of the Yorkville leader, has been fully repaid.

It appears that 100,000 acres of land in the township of Tudor, Wellington, Lincoln and Farnham has been sold to Mr. Coe. Of this vast acreage, Mr. Coe has paid for 50,000 and the remaining 40,000 acres are put down to him, thus giving him the right of pre-emption. The price per acre is $1.00, and the total price is $50,000. The price at which these lands are sold to Mr. Coe is $1.00 per acre, but he is informed that Mr. Coe has been favored with a reduction of 25 cents per acre, thus giving him an advantage of $12,500. But this is not all. In the case of ordinary purchasers it is $1.00 per acre, but Mr. Coe has been given all the timber except the pine, and as the timber thus generously donated by our Ontario rulers to their wealthy friend is alleged to be worth at least as much as the land, Mr. Coe has secured an advantage over other purchasers of not less than $125,000. Furthermore, it is understood that Mr. Coe's good fortune cannot be ascertained until he has been paid for the land, which is alleged to be a tract of similar lands on equally favorable terms in the township of Chandon, in the adjoining county.

Verily it is a good thing to be a friend of the Ontario Government and its supporters, in their interest, a Dominion Minister, even although it be to sustain an overwhelming defeat.

CRUSHED AGAIN.

Mr. Somerville, the bumptious Gt. editor who represents North Brant in the Commons, and who, last year, made a sorry spectacle of himself in connection with the proposed bill in Government printing, has been it again, as the following extract from the proceedings of a recent meeting of the Printing Committee will demonstrate:

Mr. Somerville (Brant) said he noticed that an engraving pamphlet had been printed five times at the office of the Mon. Trust Office, and that another pamphlet had been printed twice at the office of the Mon. Trust Office. The charge made for this work was at the price of 40 cents per thousand. The price was exorbitant for the Government contractors for printing did work at as low as ten cents a thousand.

Hon. Mr. Borell—How much?

Mr. Somerville—Ten cents a thousand.

Hon. Mr. Borell—It cannot be.

Mr. Somerville—Yes, but I set some plain work at ten cents a thousand. Why are we getting work done cheaper than you imagine.

Hon. Mr. Borell—I would ask Mr. McLean, of Meaford, what he charges for the lowest contract he has given.

Mr. McLean—Twenty-five cents a thousand and a half.

Crushed again! Further comment is unnecessary.

EDITORIAL BRIEFINGS.

Our local contemporary, which never tires of boasting of its wonderful enterprises, failed to announce the death of Prince Leopold in its yesterday's issue. Considering before 3 p. m., and that the news on the Government building and City Hall were hoisted at last must have been the hour of going to press, our contemporary's failure to learn and publish so very important and easily ascertained a fact, is in any way marked degree, sustains its claim of being a wide awake newspaper.

MORE OF MCKIM.

A CHAPTER OF PERS. DOINGS IN THE COUNTY OF WELLINGTON.

A POLITICAL "PATRIOT."

Widows, Orphans, Workmen, and Farmers Fleece.

(From the Arthur Enterprise.)

Last week's paragraph in the Enterprise on the political history of John McKim, who would have thought that corruption no unblushing trait, that treachery, base, and political "patriot," had taken up his abode in the county of Wellington, in the person of the Ontario Legislature.

Fortunately for the reputation of the Assembly, the turpitude that has shocked the Dominion is confined to a few individuals, namely, Robert McKim, Dr. Dowling and Mr. Bellamy. The public are scarcely aware of the extent of Mr. McKim's transgressions in the county of Wellington.

If they were, no surprise would be felt at the part he has acted in this disgusting affair. In order to throw a little light upon the true character of the "patriotic" action, as the Globe has had the audacity to dub this "Carpetbag" of Mr. McKim & Co., in their career of crime, it will be only necessary to make a few revelations in reference to some of the most honorable dealing of the man whom we have named.

Mr. McKim—the purport of Ontario Grits—in his dealings with the people of Wellington. Many of his own political supporters, who have acquired a bitter reputation for the honorable dealing of the man whom we have named by the Globe and by the Hon. C. F. Fraser, is a "patriot" and an honor to our Legislative body, will be able to bear witness to the fact that McKim is not a man of high character.

But their notions of patriotism and honor, will hardly be endorsed, so long as the conditions under which these virtues are now obtained, and the deeds by which it is sought to be obtained, are so manifestly false and dishonest.

The Globe and Mr. Fraser should be made aware that Mr. McKim became a bankrupt last fall for upwards of $60,000, and that his victims were chiefly poor men and women unable to bear such sacrifices.

Mr. McKim went round borrowing from the widow and the orphan; the humble workman and the frugal farmer—in fact, from all who had the good sense to be content to live on credit. Hence, if necessary, the sale of a lifetime to meet the winter of old age were easily obtained from confiding dupes, and either he went into the pocket of the reckless borrower. Whatever may have happened, or however the money of the lenders disappeared, the result was all the same—the creditors never saw their cash.

Mr. McKim bought up cattle on credit, losing all the while, and the large profits he was making by his speculations; and not only that, but our "patriot," in order that there should be no delay in the borrowing business, always had a bundle of ready money signed by himself, which he reported Register of Duties, to carry to fools for the purpose of endorsement when required.

Audacity and human faculty went much further than two hundred thousand dollars for $4,400, the other man did the same and is now in Montana Territory endeavoring to succeed to take his family from a home that has been his for many years, and would yet be comfortable and happy if he would, like Wilkinson and Kirkland, listen to the voice of the serpent. In a few days the crash came, and these two men found themselves and families stripped of everything by the Wellington "Patriot," who says he has saved the Ontario Government from ruin, and earned the everlasting gratitude of Mr. Mowat and the Globe.

These are examples of Mr. McKim's commercial transactions in Wellington; of his political purity in connection with the bribe business, his bribe business, even although it be to sustain an overwhelming defeat.

Dominion Parliament.

Fifth Parliament—Second Session.

FRIDAY, MARCH 28.

In the House of Commons Mr. Chaplin introduced a bill to amend the Civil Service Act.

The report of the Library Committee was adopted. Sir John Macdonald announced that the Franchise Bill would not be pushed this session. By arrangements, motions for return were decided without debate. The British Columbia Railway bill was passed. The Bill respecting colonies of Master and Mater, and Northern and Hamilton & Northern Railway Bills were also passed. On motion to lay on the table the Supply Bill, the House adjourned.

Mr. Somerville—Yes, but I set some plain work at ten cents a thousand. Why are we getting work done cheaper than you imagine.

Hon. Mr. Borell—I would ask Mr. McLean, of Meaford, what he charges for the lowest contract he has given.

Mr. McLean—Twenty-five cents a thousand and a half.
